

Oh my dawg will only store cookies when.....

You create an account - it will store your account details in your session storage

You vote on dogs - it will store the id of the dog you have voted for in your local storage.